- (b) a director who accepted or has an immediate family member who accepted any compensation from the company in excess of $120,000 during any period of twelve consecutive months within the three years preceding the determination of independence, other than the following:
 - (i) compensation for board or board committee service,
 - (ii) compensation paid to an immediate family member who is an employee (other than an executive officer) of the company,
 - (iii) compensation received for former service as an interim executive officer (provided the interim employment did not last longer than one year) (See Commentary .08), or
 - (iv) benefits under a tax-qualified retirement plan, or non-discretionary compensation;
- (c) a director who is an immediate family member of an individual who is, or at any time during the past three years was, employed by the company as an executive officer;

and any other applicable laws, rules or regulations in effect from time to time. No member of the Committee may serve on the audit committee of more than three public companies, including the Company, unless the Board (i) determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee and (ii) discloses such determination in the annual proxy statement.

(e) a director who is, or has an immediate family member who is, employed as an executive officer of another entity where at any time during the most recent three fiscal years any of the issuer's executive officers serve on the compensation committee of such other entity; or

(f) a director who is, or has an immediate family member who is, a current partner of the company's outside auditor, or was a partner or employee of the company's outside auditor who worked on the company's audit at any time during any of the past three years.

803B(2) (a) Each issuer must have, and certify that it has and will continue to have, an audit committee of at least three members, each of whom:

(i) satisfies the independence standards specified in Section 803A and Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

Additionally, each issuer must certify that it has, and will continue to have, at least one member of the audit committee who is financially sophisticated, in that he or she has past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including but not limited to being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer, other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. A director who qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under Item 407(d)(5)(ii) and (iii) of Regulation S-K or Item 3 of Form N-CSR (in the case of a registered management investment company) is presumed to qualify as financially sophisticated.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 803B(2)(a), one director who is not independent as defined in Section 803A, but who satisfies the requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (see Section 803B(2)(a)(i)), and is not a current officer or employee or an immediate family member of such officer or employee, may be appointed to the audit committee, if the board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the committee by the individual is required by the best interests of the issuer and its shareholders, and the board discloses, in the next annual meeting proxy statement (or in its next annual report on SEC Form 10-K or equivalent if the issuer does not file an annual proxy statement) subsequent to such determination, the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination. A director appointed to the audit committee pursuant to this exception may not serve for in excess of two consecutive years and may not chair the audit committee.

(c) Smaller Reporting Companies - Issuers that satisfy the definition of Smaller Reporting Company in Regulation S-K, Item 10(f)(1) are only required to maintain an audit committee of at least two members, comprised solely of independent directors who also meet the requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

² Under SEC Rule 10A-3, an "independent" director for purposes of serving on the Committee is one that, except in his or her capacity as a member of the Committee, another Board committee or the Board: (i) does not accept any consulting, advisory or other compensation from the Company (excluding fixed compensation amounts under retirement plans for prior service so long as the compensation is not contingent on continued service) and (ii) is not an "affiliated person" of the Company.

(2) All members of the Committee must have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices.

(3) No member of the Committee shall receive compensation other than (i) director's fees for service as a director of the Company, including reasonable compensation for serving on the Committee as well as regular benefits that other directors receive (including equity-based awards) and (ii) a pension or similar compensation for past performance, provided that such compensation is not contingent on continued or future service to the Company.
